

Study Tour to Alipore jail Museum

A study tour had been arranged by the Department of History (Day) of Victoria Institution (College) on 30/11/23 with 29 students of B.A. Sem I (Major) & Sem I (MDC). They were taken to the Alipore Central Jail Museum accompanied by 5 teachers of the Department in a reserved bus. Alipore Central Jail Museum was a place where political prisoners were imprisoned in the British period. To commemorate the contribution of the fighters in the History of Freedom Movement in India, Alipore Correctional Home has been transformed to Alipore Jail Museum with the purpose to preserve the evidence, documents, records of the entire freedom movement. Students with an intense attention visited the entire museum, noted down the facts, took photographs. After seeing the important areas of the entire place, they were taken to a cafeteria for lunch within the campus. Getting refreshed, they were taken back to their college by bus.

