

Celebration of Meghdut Utsab by Bengali Department and Sanskrit Department, VIC

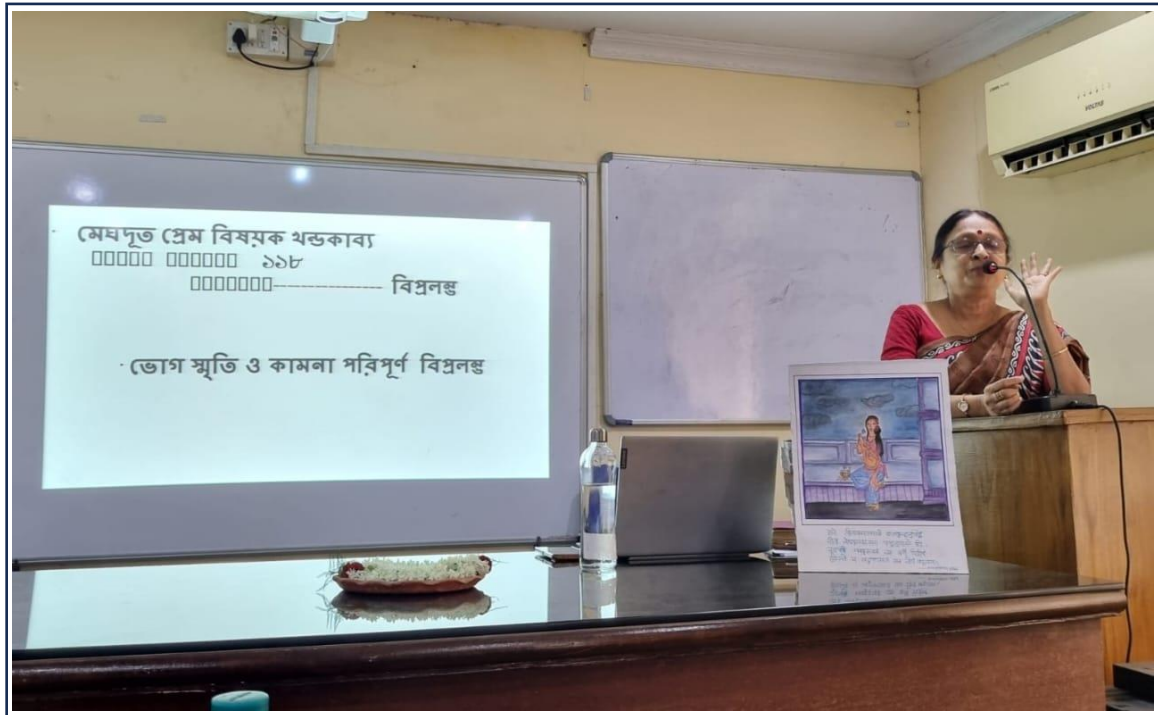

Department of Sanskrit and the Department of Bengali conducted a very warm extended lecture on 'Meghdut Utsab' on 16.7.2024. At the opening of the programme, inaugurated by our respected Principal madam, the celebration was started with the recitation of Meghaduta by two students of Sanskrit Department along with the presentation of the paintings of the students on Meghaduta. Dr. Indrani Chakraborty, Associate Professor of the Department of Bengali was the Resource person. Principal Dr. Maitreyi Ray Kanjilal spread the tune of the deep-rooted relationship between the Sanskrit and the Bengali literature. Then we witnessed a heart touching and valuable comparative discussion about the relevance between these two literatures. Especially, The Great poet Kalidasa is still influential. The audience was overwhelmed with joy in this great heart touching speech.

The students felicitating Principal Madam Dr. Maitreyi Ray Kanjilal during the event

The students felicitating the Speaker Dr. Indrani Chakraborty, Associate Professor, Bengali Department during the event

Dr. Indrani Chakraborty delivering her resourceful lecture

The audience comprising of the faculties of English department, Bengali department and Sanskrit department, VIC and the students during the event