

Department of Sanskrit

Visit to Rammohan College to attend Special Lectures on 10.05.2023

On the 10th of May, 2023, Two students of Sem VI Hons. of the Department of Sanskrit, guided by Prof. Madhulina Das, Assistant Professor of the Department, have visited Rammohan College, Kolkata to attend two Special Lectures organized by the Department of Bengali, Rammohan College. The first lecture delivered by our esteemed colleague Prof. Arijit Baidya, Assistant Professor in Sanskrit, Victoria Institution (College) was on “Kālidāsa O Rabindranath” (Kālidāsa and Rabindranath) and the second lecture, delivered by Dr. Kabita Dutta, Retired Professor in Bengali, Rammohan College, was on “Chaitanyabhagavad”. Both of the lectures were very illuminating and well-presented in very lucid language. It was, indeed, a grand opportunity as well as an unforgettable experience for the students and the teachers to attend such enjoyable sessions and also to have the cordial hospitality of the Bengali Department of Rammohan College.

