

Why choose Political Science at Victoria Institution (College)?

We have been trying to supplement teaching learning process through

- ❑ Annual series of Extension Lectures since 2014 which are invaluable in terms of interaction and learning from eminent scholars from other HEIs
- ❑ Documentary film screening is regularly held to make syllabus controlled learning impactful and interesting

We try to make our students respond to issues surrounding us so that they develop the faculty of appreciation and critical analysis by

- ❑ Students maintain a News Bulletin board
- ❑ They participate in various observance days like IWD, IHRD in the form of paper presentation, slogan writing and poster making
- ❑ Students also prepare departmental wall magazine titled 'Polyphony' on topical issues

Opportunities for a Political Science graduate ...

• Government sector

- ❑ Has an edge over others while preparing for any government job (civil service, miscellaneous, clerical etc.)
- ❑ Also has an advantage over others if one decides to pursue a career in law or legal studies
- ❑ Teaching, research, publication and related areas

• Private sector

- ❑ Has substantial opportunity in any HR sector of an MNC
- ❑ Can pursue a career in media, information and broadcasting sector
- ❑ Can pursue a career as a PR professional
- ❑ NGOs, market research teams and similar institutes recruit graduates having elementary knowledge of research methodology which is taught as a SEC course