

Course Outcomes (CO) for Bachelor of Arts in Department of Psychology

CO 1: To introduce students to the basic concepts of psychology and applications of psychology in everyday life.

CO 2: Building orientation regarding psychological research (quantitative and qualitative) and to familiarize students with the use of statistical method.

CO 3: To explore the biological basis of behavior and develop understanding regarding cognition and neurobiological basis of psychological function.

CO 4: Developing the introduction to the development of discipline, concept of psychological thought, individual differences, individual's potential and self and Identity from Indian and western Perspective.

CO 5: To introduce students to the realm of social world, its influence and help students gain knowledge about social problems with intervention strategies to address them

CO 6: Understanding and dealing with psychological disorders and concepts, processes and techniques of counseling.

CO 7: To impart an understanding of the various domains of human development across life span.

CC 3 Biopsychology			✓
CC 4 Psychology of individual differences				✓
CC 5 Development of psychological thought				✓
CC 6 Psychological research		✓
CC7 Social psychology					✓
CC 8 Understanding Psychological Disorder						✓
CC 9 Statistical methods for psychological research		✓
CC 10 Applied social psychology					✓
CC 11 Understanding and dealing with psychological disorder						✓
CC 12 Developmental psychology							✓
CC 13 Organizational behaviour								✓
CC 14 Counselling psychology						✓
DSE-A-1 Positive psychology									✓

